Lead Catalyst & Director of Ministry Education

Yvonne has a Bachelor of Arts in Christian Studies from Vision International University with a mandate to help Prophets excel in every aspect of life. She is anointed to help people grow spiritually, emotionally, and prophetically. She is the Founder of the Deborah and Esther Arising Conference and the Women's Prophetic Alliance and owner of Quiverfull Publishing.

Yvonne has been engaged in ministry for 35 years in addition to working in corporate America as a Project Manager and Quality Consultant for one of the largest Healthcare Organizations in the world. With a rich family history and as a natural-born leader, she has spent countless hours training leaders and giving spiritual counsel in both the private and public sectors.

She is a change agent and a prayer strategist with a powerful gift of impartation and healing; her message is revelatory, transforming, revolutionary, and rooted in four generations of ministry. Yvonne is no stranger to pain and hardship, she is a survivor of domestic violence, sexual abuse, and divorce, and she has overcome the grief and loss of her mother and a stillborn child.

Through life's challenges, she has poised herself to overcome and win. Her peers know her as an individual who lives a sacrificial life of giving and service. She selflessly donates her time to community development and missionary work, both domestic and abroad. The culmination of Yvonne's benevolence happened on February 16, 2006, when she donated a kidney to her friend.
